Moderator's Prayer for September

- Please join us in praying together each Monday at midday

Queensland congregations live streaming worship

Here is a list of Queensland Uniting Church congregations who are live streaming.

Moderator's conclusion service

The service of worship to mark the conclusion of the term of Rev David Baker as Moderator of the Queensland Synod was held on Wednesday 16 September. We thank him for his diligence and pastoral care of us, especially during these difficult times.

Birthdays this week: Neil Ramm (25th)

Thank you, Allan, for emailing us last week's Order of Service, and especially for delivering a real service face to face.

Thankyou to the many members who made the service possible. It certainly showed the body of Christ working together. Yes, it was hard to keep to the 1.5 metre distance, but we did our best.

And the musicians were on fire! That Londonderry Air tune (whether it was Scottish or Irish), I thought they were going to have “lift off” through the roof. And then when we sang Amazing Grace, and How great Thou art It seemed that, like Enoch, we would be taken up as well.

During the announcements we were advised that on the 27th September we would have another face to face service, a brief one, followed by a congregational meeting to discuss the future of our church, and Wayne will deliver a financial statement.

Our Prayers for Others

We ask

- for comfort for those mourning. Especially Nancy and her family.
- for healing for Meg and Shirley after their operations
- for the success of Barbara's eye surgery
- for healing for Jeanette, and her fast discharge from hospital
- for all who are suffering because of the Covid-19 pandemic
- for hope and faith that You are in control
- that our relationship with You shines through us to give others hope
