Next non-virtual Church service is Sunday 15th

November at 8:30 am in the church (of course).

We held Our congregational meeting last Saturday .

Chairman Ian had a dental emergency, and Allan stepped in heroically, and cleared the way for Chris Crause, Phil Smith and Dave Thomas to help us understand our current situation, and possibilities for continuing worship at Maroochydhore U/C.

Phil likened our situation to Abram (when God said to him “let’s go to a new land”), and Nehemiah (when the remnants of God’s people needed to work together to repair the city walls). Phil emphasised that like them, we can’t do this on our own.

Kris explained the bigger picture, and forwarded a few possibilities, one being that we might be able to re-classify as a faith-community, and Phil stressed the need to move forward slowly, and review where we stand around June 21st 2021. And there might be the possibility of yard work being done for us.

Ian arrived, and amazingly transfigured from his role as dentist, straight into Chairperson mode. The key question posed was Do we want to continue as a congregation? With the responsibilities this requires. Our finances remain an issue. And Phil offered to help us create a priority list.

3 more members were voted on to Church Council, which will meet with Phil a.s.a.p.

Our next service will be held on Sunday 15 November 2020 at 8.30 am. This service will be conducted by Rev. Glenn Ingram.

A special thankyou to Bev Lacey for organising compliance cleaning. And she especially wants to thank Winnie and Gil Park for all the work they have been doing over the last weeks in keeping the Church clean.

We still need to organise a date for thanking Wayne and Neville for all their service to us over the years.
