Moderator's Prayer for Afghanistan

Loving God, you call us to live together in peace, reaching out to each other in love.

We look on with despair as we see parts of our community, parts of our world torn apart by injustice. Help us to reach out with compassion to those who find themselves without hope.

May we who have much to give, offer what we have, to those who have lost everything. Help us to see those who are desperate to live their lives in safety and security as our neighbours, the people we are called to love and care for.

May we be the voice to those whose voice has been lost in the noise of political rhetoric. Continue merciful God to place within us a spirit of peace and reconciliation, and enable us by your spirit to act justly, love mercy and continue our walk with you.

In Christ we pray,
Amen

Rev Andrew Gunton
