

EATING IN THE FIFTIES

Pasta had not been invented. It was macaroni or spaghetti.

Curry was a surname.

A take-away was a mathematical problem.

Pizza? Sounds like a leaning tower somewhere.

Bananas and oranges only appeared at Christmas time.

All chips were plain.

Oil was for lubricating, fat was for cooking.

Tea was made in a teapot using tea leaves and never green.

Cubed sugar was regarded as posh.

Chickens didn't have fingers in those days.

None of us had ever heard of yogurt.

Healthy food consisted of anything edible.

Cooking outside was called camping.

Seaweed was not a recognized food.

'Kebab' was not even a word, never mind a food.

Sugar enjoyed a good press in those days, and was regarded as being white gold.

Prunes were medicinal.

Surprisingly muesli was readily available. It was called cattle feed.

Pineapples came in chunks in a tin; we had only ever seen a picture of a real one.

Water came out of the tap. If someone had suggested bottling it and charging more than gasoline for it, they would have become a laughing stock.

The one thing that we never ever had on/at our table in the fifties ... was elbows, hats and cell phones.

Moderator’s Prayer:

Holy and loving God, you created each of us in your image. You created us to have live in abundance, to be in joyful and loving relationship with you and with each other. We have come in to the Uniting church from many different places and backgrounds, with different ideas and different experiences. Help us to recognize this diversity as a gift. Help us to listen, to seek understanding, not barriers. Help us to see Christ in the other, and help us to remember that we are all loved by you. Help us to work together as the body of Christ, following where you lead, bringing your life and flourishing to the world. In the name of Christ we pray. Amen

We are, all of us, disciples, and each of us can disciple other people, as we work and walk together on the Way. This month as we reflect on the theme Dream Dreams, we ask ourselves what we might envision, believe in and act upon in order to live out God’s plan for us.

Proposed Church council meeting Saturday 18th September.
