Boy aged 4: Dad, I've decided to get married.
Dad: Wonderful; do you have a girl in mind?!
Boy: Yes... grandma! She said she loves me, I love her, too....and she's the best cook & story teller in the whole world!!
Dad: That's nice, but we have a small problem there!!
Boy: What problem?!
Dad: She happens to be my mother. How can you marry my mother!!
Boy: Why not?! You married mine!!!!

Moderator's Prayer:

God, who calls even me, with all my flaws and failings, I can't begin to imagine my part in your grand adventure of reconciliation for all of creation. Sometimes I feel like I'm in a very small boat on your vast ocean. And yet, Sovereign God, you continue to call me and invite me to join with you in bringing restoration and hope to the places and people I encounter.

Help me to see the world as you do.

Help me to open myself to the possibilities you place in front of me.

Help me to use all that you've given me for the sake of the flourishing of the world around me.

Lord in your mercy....hear my prayer

We are, all of us, disciples, and each of us can disciple other people, as we work and walk together on the Way. This month as we reflect on the theme Dream Dreams, we ask ourselves what we might envision, believe in and act upon in order to live out God's plan for us.

Laurie Kuchler would like to thank all those who celebrated her "goodbye" morning tea with her. Allan is doing very well after his operation and is staying at his brother's house for some of his recuperation. They have very valued memories of their time with us.
