Moderator's Prayer:

Loving Lord, open us to your presence in our lives. Inspire our imagination to see Your hope, and the courage to live in that hope. Help us to surrender our desires to align with Your will so that we may have the courage and humility to live both as a disciple and a discipler, to follow you and to lead others to you.
Lord grant the yearnings of my heart I pray, in Jesus' name Amen.

During the Covid lockdown last year the Herald stopped advertising the Thursday morning 8 am Fellowship of Fixing. A number of our very committed workers have kept this going, but it is now time to advertise it again. We are always glad to have workers. If you turn up and aren't sure what you could do, just ask someone, and you will be happily given a task. Thankyou to our unsung heroes who turn up each week, so we can enjoy church on Sundays.

More cleared cupboard space is required. So, some cupboards are being cleaned out. If you own items in the cupboards, could you retrieve them unless you know they are needed by our parishioners. You may otherwise find that they have been removed.

If anyone has any keys that open any cupboards, could you let a member of the Leadership Team know. We are missing a number of keys that open up cupboards.

Birthdays this week: Kay Bartholomai (5 th)

We have one more fellowship morning tea (14th October) before our Christmas fellowship celebration (11th Nov). Unless lots of us request a morning tea on the 11th, we will have our usual luncheon. And unless lots of us object to having it at the Waterfront again, that's where we'll celebrate. Please email or verbally notify Jan S. before 28th October, if you are interested in attending.

As mentioned last week, three gold rings were lost on the church property last week. If you find them please contact Jess, who will be very grateful.

Please pray for

Kris's rheumatoid arthritis to ease off, and her medication to take effect

For all those in lockdown. To be given endurance and hope

For those who feel worn out to be restored

For Jess to find her rings

If you know someone, or a situation needs our prayers could you email Jan S to put requests in the Herald so we can pray for you, or even contact you to cheer you up?
