Weekly Prayer from Rev Beatriz Skippen Minister at Bulimba Uniting Church.

John 14:27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Dear Lord, We give thanks for your promise, that it is your peace that you leave us, in whatever age we live.

It is your peace that we have and it is your peace that we depend upon. Even as all around us, in different parts of the world, we see trouble and unrest, even in some places, wars. We pray for the peacemakers. We thank you for them, and we pray your peace be over this world. We pray for families who have been torn apart by war and violence, for children who have lost parents and now survive in this world alone, dependent on their own resources. Please help them Lord, and may they find a place where they can be nurtured, valued, and have a sense of belonging. Thank you that even when we can't see how things can change, that you already are at work. All these things we pray in the name of the Prince of Peace. Amen. Our Christmas luncheon will be at the Waterfront Hotel.

Please email or verbally notify Jan S. before 28th October, if you are interested in attending.

Our Christmas Day service will be on a Saturday. Natalie Roy has offered to take our service again. This service will incorporate our Korean Fellowship as well. Also we won't be having a service on Sunday 26th December.

Our prayers

- For Del Swartz in SCUH
- For healing for Nancy Nesbit's back
- For Kevin, Trish's son as he undergoes another round of treatment, that his body will hold up, and heal.
- For Philip, Marie's, as his treatment moves into long term medical treatment
- For comfort for Theo and his family on the death of his sister, and that He makes his way clear to get across two state borders in time for her funeral
- For Imm's friend, Hugh, who is very low

The Mooloolaba marathon, and a function at Allora Gardens depleted our congregation last Sunday. There were only 17 of us (and that counts the preacher, the music team, and the AV person), but Jan R. preached as though to the 5000, with her usual enthusiasm and uplifting message. Thankyou.

Rev James Stevenson dropped into our prayer meeting last week. Apparently, he keeps up to date with our doings, because a number of us have managed to find ourselves admitted to Buderim Private (his place of work). He is crossing us each off his list as we are admitted. He expects some of us to try harder to get crossed off his list.
