Our prayers

- For comfort for those who mourn
- For Trish and her family and friends
- For Neville and his family and friends
- For Marie and her family
- For healing for those who have health issues

This Christmas, the Synod Office is inviting us to make a contribution around the theme of hope and to join in for a month of joy and celebration over the course of December! Synod is asking us to send a prayer, a reflection, a video or a recipe so we can all share in this season of hope from the beginning of December for Christmas 2021.

Weekly Prayer

From the Moderator -

A prayer for the UN Climate Change Conference

Creator God,

Be with the leaders of the world as they meet and consider the steps to be taken to bring about healing to your fractured planet.

Guide them with your wisdom and compassion,
Help them to see the responsibilities of being good stewards for your beloved creation,
Allow them to hear the pleas of future generations.

May we all work together through the power of your Spirit to bring about true and lasting reconciliation of all things.

We pray this in Christ's name,

Amen.

Rev Andrew Gunton

Uniting Church in Australia, Queensland Synod

As a congregation, we would like to extend our gratitude to Jan and John Carstairs for their commitment to maintaining the church and its grounds, over the years. As they take a step back from the Fellowship of Fixing, we hope they have mostly good memories of their Thursday mornings here, and are able to wipe from their memories the 2 visits to doctors to have stitches inserted in wounds.
