(From this week's Uniting News) Lord

We live in uncertain times. Many things happen that we can't control. The news we hear on TV, in the paper or via social media tends to focus on the negative, the divisive and may cause us to focus on our fears.

We pray that you will help us look to you for strength patience and set our attitude to approach the next challenge. Help us be present and recognise the beauty in the ordinary and the extraordinary that we might experience today.

Through keeping our eyes on you, please give us the courage to face our fears and be Jesus to the people we encounter.

Amen Peter Cranna, Executive Director - Strategic Resources and Assurance

Our Prayers for this week

We ask God's healing on all those who have health needs,
And for His guidance and blessing on our Congregational meeting today.
