

Fellowship morning tea

Thank you God, that I am free. When I am hurt I am free to forgive, when I feel weary I am free to drop the load and run, when I feel lost I am free to see Your Light. When I feel frustrated or limited, or in disagreement or not allowed to do what I'm sure is right...I am free to practise self-control, and to breathe and to pray. Moderator's weekly prayer

Our prayers, once again, go out to all those affected by the floods, including those who haven't been able to get needed supplies from chemists and supermarkets

We have been informed that Chris Wickham who regularly attended our church for many years is very unwell. Chris was also a keen bowler and played on a regular basis. Her family is by her bedside at Hester Retirement Village.
