As the End of Financial Year looms, with auditing and meetings, it is time to consider the following

HOW TO KILL ALMOST ANY ORGANISATION

1. Don't attend meetings, but if you do, arrive late.
2. Be sure to leave before the meeting is closed.
3. Never have anything to say at the meeting. - wait till you get outside.
4. When at the meeting, vote to do everything, but when you get home, do nothing.
5. The next day find fault with the committee and other members.
6. Be sure to sit in the back, so you can talk freely to another member.
7. At every opportunity threaten to resign, and try to get others to.
8. If ever asked to help, say you haven't time.
9. Never accept an office. It's easier to criticise than to do things

From this week's Uniting News-

Jesus is my Saviour – wounded but whole. Resurrected, he still bore the marks of violence to help his disciples understand and believe. When we doubt let us remember this humility, compassion and power.

Spuddle: a useful verb from the 17th century that means to work feebly and ineffectively, because your mind is elsewhere or you haven't quite woken up yet. To be extremely busy whilst achieving absolutely nothing.

Devotion by Oswald Chambers My utmost for his highest

June 8 "If you know these things, happy are you if you do them".
John 13:17

Determine to know more than others. If you do not cut the moorings, God will have to break them by a storm and send you out. Launch all on God, go out on the great swelling tide of His purpose, and you will get your eyes open. If you believe in Jesus, you are not to spend all your time in the smooth waters just inside the harbour bar, full of delight, but always moored; you have to get out through the harbour bar into the great deeps of God and begin to know for yourself, begin to have spiritual discernment.

When you know you should do a thing, and do it, immediately you know more. Revise where you have become stodgy spiritually, and you will find it goes back to a point where there was something you knew you should do, but you did not do it because there seemed no immediate call to, and now you have no perception, no discernment; at a time of crisis you are spiritually distracted instead of spiritually self-possessed. It is a dangerous thing to refuse to go on knowing.

The counterfeit of obedience is a state of mind in which you work up occasions to sacrifice yourself; ardour is mistaken for discernment. It is easier to sacrifice yourself than to fulfill your spiritual destiny, which is stated in Romans 12 :1-2. It is a great deal better to fulfill the purpose of God in your life by discerning His will than to perform great acts of self-sacrifice. "To obey is better than sacrifice". Beware of harking back to what you once were when God wants you to be something you have never been. "If any man will do.... he shall know."
