DARING HOPE

Our world may seem to be one of struggle ... but in truth Jesus has overcome the world. We are more than victorious, the fight has already been won, and we are called to a bold and daring hope.

How then shall we live...?

Prayer from Rev. Andrew Gunton

Merciful God we give thanks for your mercy and peace which flow to each and everyone of us through the power of your Holy Spirit. As Australia engages in national Reconciliation week, may we the Second people, who have caused much pain to the First peoples of this land, continue to walk the path of recognition of those past hurts and continue to be moved into action as we look to your wisdom and guidance to bring us together as one people. In your mercy forgive us.

As we watch in horror at yet another school shooting in America, grant compassion and hope to all decision makers. Stir them into action through the power of your Holy Spirit and hold those who mourn the loss of treasured life close in your loving embrace. In your mercy forgive us.

As we celebrate this Pentecost may the Holy Spirit fill us anew with a passion to bring about justice and peace for all people. Inspire us with a daring hope to guide our words and our actions – let us be courageous and full of faith. Fill us with renewed energy to take on the challenge to make real change in our world and bring about lasting change so that all people will know that they are loved, free and forgiven. Amen

The 23rd Psalm for Busy People (Submitted by one of our congregation)

The Lord is my pacesetter, I shall not rush. He makes me stop and rest for quiet intervals. He provides me with images of stillness which restore my serenity. He leads me in ways of efficiency through calmness of mind. His guidance is peace.

Even though I have a great many things to accomplish each day I will not fret. For His presence is here, His timelessness, His all importance will keep me in balance. He prepares refreshment and renewal in the midst of my activity by anointing my mind with oils of tranquillity.

My cup of joyous energy overflows. Such harmony and effectiveness shall be the fruits of my hours. For I shall walk in the peace of the Lord and dwell in His house forever.
