

I got myself a seniors' GPS. Not only does it tell me how to get to my destination, it tells me why I wanted to go there.

I always knock on the fridge before I open it...

Just in case there's a salad dressing.

If you know of anyone who might be willing to take our church services on the 2nd, 4th and 5th Sundays of the month, that would be really good, as we are facing a serious short fall right through the rest of the year. (God has been really faithful to us, and we have been given a preacher each week for about 18 months). There are three possible solutions at the moment. 1. Streaming a service online through the computer. 2. members of the congregation putting services together. 3. Only having services week 1 and week 3 of the month. Please pray about this.

Meditation for September from Uniting News

Rest for our souls - Psalm 116 & Matthew 11: 28-30

Our souls can rest for the Lord is good – He hears our prayers and loves us completely, no matter our weariness, pain, shame or despair. When we come alongside Jesus to do his work and follow his lead, how light might our burdens be, and who might we become?

Prayer

God give us rest today so that we might walk in peace with a growing energy and hope. Thank you, Jesus that you carry our burdens and lighten our load. Let us take a breath, a moment to be still ... and begin to run ... towards You.
Amen.

“What shall be done unto the man whom the king delights to honor?”—Esther 6:6

What do we intend to do as a Church for Christ Jesus, “whom the king delights to honor?”

First, believe Him. Christ is always pleased with His people’s faith. Beloved, confide in Him. Tell Him your troubles. Pour your heart before Him. Trust the merit of His blood, the power of His arm, and the love of His heart.

He is a God of love: if you would give Him something, show Him your love. Let your heart seek Him, and with the arms of your love, embrace Him. In your soul’s silent language, say “Kiss me with the kisses of Your mouth, for Your love is better than wine;” and let this be your joyful song: “I am my Beloved’s, and my Beloved is mine.” Give Him, then, the jewels of your heart.
