This month's Uniting News theme:

Let us choose to let go of our burdens.

Rest for our souls - Psalm 116 & Matthew 11: 28-30

Our souls can rest for the Lord is good – He hears our prayers and loves us completely, no matter our weariness, pain, shame or despair. When we come alongside Jesus to do his work and follow his lead, how light might our burdens be, and who might we become?

"When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance" (Acts 2:1-4 ESV).

The story of the Church is astonishing and intense. In this scene from Acts 2, the Spirit explodes onto the disciples. The effect is so electric that observers thought the disciples were drunk. But they were drunk on God, not wine.

God is also at work here and now. By studying His Word we can see what He has done and what He will do. Pray that you will be given the eyes to see and the ears to hear how He is changing the human condition.

Please join us for morning tea, after the service.

If you know of anyone who might be willing to take our church services on the 2nd, 4th and 5th Sundays of the month, that would be really good, as we are facing a serious short fall right through the rest of the year. There are three possible solutions at the moment.

1. Streaming a service online through the computer. 2. members of the congregation putting services together. 3. Only having services week 1 and week 3 of the month. Please pray about this.
