11 PEOPLE ... ON A ROPE

Eleven people were hanging on a rope, under a helicopter.

10 men and 1 woman.

The rope was not strong enough to carry them all, so they decided that one had to leave, because otherwise they were all going to fall.

Because otherwise they were all going to fall.

They weren't able to choose that person, until the woman gave a very touching speech.

She said that she would voluntarily let go of the rope, because, as a woman, she was used to giving up everything for her husband and kids or for men in general, and was used to always making sacrifices with little in return.

As soon as she finished her speech, all the men started clapping

Don't despise the day of small beginnings!

Please join us for morning tea, after the service, to thank Neville Biggs for his continued service to us

If you are able to bring a plate of food to contribute to the morning tea, that would be appreciated.

If you know of anyone who might be willing to take our church services on the 2nd, 4th and 5th Sundays of the month, that would be really good, as we are facing a serious short fall right through the rest of the year. There are three possible solutions at the moment. 1. Streaming a service online through the computer. 2. members of the congregation putting services together. 3. Only having services week 1 and week 3 of the month. Please pray about this.

From "Inspirational Ministries" God's Secrets

"Certainly the LORD God does nothing unless He reveals His secret plan to His servants the prophets. A lion has roared! Who will not fear? The LORD God has spoken! Who can do anything but prophesy?" – Amos 3:7-8 NASB

God's prophets had a special calling. Their assignment was to be His servants, delivering the messages He gave them. They needed special sensitivity to know when God was speaking and to understand what they were to do and say.

This required having a special relationship with Him, one of intimacy and trust. Amos was one of those people. He spoke only in designated moments when he felt compelled to speak the message God gave him to deliver.

God even entrusted secrets to servants like Amos. These were private things not readily apparent to others, things known only to God and those to whom He chose to reveal them.

We can see why God was so pleased with Amos. He was trustworthy, faithful, and committed to Him. Amos was sensitive to God's voice and the leading of His Spirit, ready to serve Him, regardless of consequences or circumstances.

Who are God's servants today? They are people who develop an intimate relationship with Him, listen to Him, fill their minds with His Word, are sensitive to His voice, and are ready to do what He asks. These are people to whom God reveals His secrets. These are His trusted servants. Seek to develop a more intimate relationship with God. Be committed to serving Him. Listen to His voice. Be ready to hear and sensitive to His Spirit. As He speaks to you, be faithful to do what He asks.

Reflection Question: What do you hear God saying to you today?
