

LEAVE IT WITH GOD.

"I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that Day." 2 Timothy 1:12 NKJV

Have you ever left an appliance at the repair shop? Perhaps your toaster broke, or your microwave oven stopped working. You tried to fix it but had no success. So you took it to the specialist. You explained the problem and then...

- Offered to stay and help him fix it,
- Hovered next to his workbench asking questions about the progress, or
- Threw a sleeping bag on the floor of the workshop so you could watch the repairman at work.

If you did any of these things, you don't understand the relationship between client and repairman. The arrangement is uncomplicated. Leave it with him to fix it. Our protocol with God is equally simple. . Leave your problem with him.

God does not need our help, counsel, or assistance. (Please repeat this phrase: "I hereby resign as ruler of the universe.") When he is ready for us to reengage, he will let us know.

Birthdays this week: Doug Jones (9th)

A big thankyou to all those who have kept us worshipping as a congregation. Our unsung heroes and heroines. Those who have provided food and mirth and service at our morning teas after the service. The person who consistently donates home made jams. Those who check if our restrooms need attention, or need bins emptying. The lawn mowers. The cleaners. Those who willingly do anything they are asked to do, and often do quietly tasks which go un-noticed. Our flower arrangements are always lovely. Someone always opens up, and locks up. And then there are those who always know the right words in the right places that uplift and encourage us. We are so blessed.

Starting off the day with two eggs for breakfast. They're Cadbury eggs but whatever. Diet plan just says "2 eggs" so let's not get picky.
