Good to see our Southern Friends, like the whales, have begun their winter migration. We are so pleased to see you return.

If anyone has spare lemons or oranges (not navel oranges), Pam is offering to make jam or marmalade to donate for sale.

What do we learn from hippopotamuses?

That it's impossible to reduce weight by eating green grass and salads and walking.

Where's your Focus?

Let us not become weary in doing good. Galatians 6:9

Three angels once took note of a saintly man. He did so much good for so many people that the angels went to God with this request: "That man deserves a special gift. He is so unselfish. He always helps others. Let's reward him."

"Why don't you ask him what he would like?" God suggested. The angels agreed and approached the man.

"We would like to give you a gift."

The man looked at the angels and asked, "Any gift?"

"Yes."

"Then I want to do good and not know that I did it."

From that day forward wherever the man's shadow passed, good things happened. Plants flourished. People laughed. The sick were healed. Merchants succeeded. And the man, unburdened by the knowledge of his success, smiled.

Miserable is the Christian whose focus is on self.

Blessed is the Christian whose focus is on others.
