A judge jailed a man with a stammer but said he was unlikely to complete his sentence.

I bought my wife a smart car. It won't let her in.

I tried to get in a nightclub, but they wouldn't let me in unless I had a tie. So, I went back to the car to find one, but all I could find was some jump leads. They let me in with them on, but the bouncer warned ... "you can come in, but don't start anything"!

I've been diagnosed with kleptomania - I'm taking a lot of stuff for it.

From Charles Spurgeon

"Why stay here until we die?"
(2 Kings 7:3)

This book was mainly intended for the edification of believers, but if you're yet unsaved, our heart yearns over you, and we would like to say a word that may be a blessing to you. Open a Bible, and read the story of the lepers,²¹³ and note their condition, which was much like yours. If you remain where you are you'll spiritually perish, if you go to Jesus you can only physically die. None escape who refuse to go to Jesus for eternal life.²¹⁴ Surely you know some who are saved who believe in Him—so why not you? The Ninevites said, "Who can tell?"²¹⁵ Act upon the same hope, and with the same good sense, and try the Lord's mercy. To perish is so awful that, if there were only a straw to grab hold of, the instinct of self-preservation should make you stretch out your hand. To this point we've been talking to you on your own unbelieving ground. Now we assure you that if you seek the Lord you will find Him.²¹⁶ Jesus casts out no one who comes to Him.²¹⁷ You won't perish if you trust Him.²¹⁸ On the contrary, you'll find treasure far richer than the lepers gathered in Syria's deserted camp.²¹⁹ May the Holy Spirit encourage you to go to Jesus at once. When you're saved, tell others the good news. Don't keep it to yourself. Tell Christians first, and unite with them in fellowship. Inform the pastor of your eternal life in Christ, and proclaim the good news everywhere. May the Lord save you before the sun goes down this day.
