*Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness.
(2 Timothy 4:8)*

Doubting one! you have sometimes said, "I'm afraid I will never enter heaven." Don't be afraid, for all the people of God will enter there. A dying person exclaimed, "I have no fear of going home. I have sent all before me. God's finger is on the latch of my door, and I am ready for Him to enter." "But," said someone, "aren't you afraid that you may miss your inheritance?" "No," the person replied. "There's one crown in heaven that the angel Gabriel cannot wear—it will fit no head but mine. There's one throne in heaven that Paul cannot fill—it was made for me alone." Oh, Christian, what a joyous thought—your portion is secure. "But can't I forfeit it?" No, it's bestowed. If I'm a child of God I will not lose it. It's mine as securely as if I were there. Come, and let us sit upon the top of Nebo and view the goodly land, even Canaan.²⁴ See that little river of death glistening in the sunlight, and across it do you see the pinnacles of the eternal city? Know, then, that if you could fly across you would see written upon one of its many mansions, "This remains for such a one—it is preserved for you only." If you believe in the Lord Jesus, if you've repented of sin, if you've been renewed in heart, you're one of the Lord's people. There is a mansion and a crown reserved for you, for there will be no vacant thrones in glory when all the chosen are gathered in.
