I went to buy a camouflage tent the other day.I couldn't find any.

Why don't mummies go on camping trips?Because they're afraid to relax and unwind.

What's a tree's favourite drink? Root beer.

What do you call a bunch of crows out for camping?....Murder within tent.

Give a man a fish and you feed him for a day. But teach a man to fish and you get rid of him for the whole weekend.

An adventurer was paddling on a river in winter.

Feeling cold, he lit a fire in his boat, only to discover that you can't have your kayak and heat it too...

Why do trees have so many friends? They branch out.

Where do campers keep their money?.....In a river bank.

What is camping?
The only vacation where you work harder preparing meals and caring for your living space than you do in your house.

What does it mean when you find a horseshoe at camp? Some poor horse is going around barefoot.

Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson go on a camping trip together. After eating their dinner around the campfire they retire to the tent to go to sleep. A few hours later Sherlock wakes up.

"Watson, are you awake?" He asks.

"Yes sir. What is it?" Answers Watson.

"Look up and tell me what you see." Asks Holmes.

"I see billions of stars," says Watson.

"And what does that tell you Watson," asks Holmes.

"Well," says Dr Watson," Astronomically, it tells me that there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets. Astrologically, I observe that Saturn is in Leo. Chronologically, I deduce that the time is approximately a quarter past three. Theologically, I can see that God is all powerful and that we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, I suspect that we will have a beautiful day tomorrow." "Why? – What does it tell you, Holmes?"

Holmes is quiet for a moment then says: "It tells me that someone has stolen our tent."

HAVE I SEEN HIM?

"After that He appeared in another form unto two of them."

MARK 16:12

B eing saved and seeing Jesus are not the same thing. Many are partakers of God's grace who have never seen Jesus. When once you have seen Jesus, you can never be the same, other things do not appeal as they used to do.

Always distinguish between what you see Jesus to be, and what He has done for you. If you only know what He has done for you, you have not a big enough God; but if you have had a vision of Jesus as He is, experiences can come and go, you will endure "as seeing Him Who is invisible." The man blind from his birth did not know Who Jesus was until He appeared and revealed Himself to him. Jesus appears to those for whom He has done something; but we cannot dictate when He will come. Suddenly at any turn He may come. "Now I see Him!"

Jesus must appear to your friend as well as to you; no one can see Jesus with your eyes. Severance takes place where one and not the other has seen Jesus. You cannot bring your friend unless God brings him. Have you seen Jesus? Then you will want others to see Him too. "And they went and told it unto the residue, neither believed they them." You must tell, although they do not believe.

O could I tell, ye surely would believe it!
O could I only say what I have seen!
How should I tell or how can ye receive it,
How, till He bringeth you where I have been?
