Isaiah 14:18-19 "Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland."

April 4

God made Him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.
 (2 Corinthians 5:21)

Christian, why are you weeping? Are you mourning over your own corruptions? Look to your perfect Lord, and remember you are complete in Him.<sup>325</sup> In God's sight you are as perfect as if you had never sinned.<sup>326</sup> More than that, the Lord our Righteousness<sup>327</sup> has put a divine garment upon you, so that you have more than the righteousness of man—you have the righteousness of God. You who are mourning by reason of inbred sin and depravity, remember, none of your sins can condemn you. You've learned to hate sin, but you've learned also to know that sin is not yours—it was laid upon Christ's head. Your standing is not in yourself, it's in Christ. Your acceptance is not in yourself, it's in your Lord. You're as much accepted of God today, with all your sinfulness, as you'll be when you stand before His throne, free from all corruption. Take hold of this precious thought, perfection in Christ! For you are "complete in Him." With your Savior's garment on, you're holy as the Holy One. "Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us." Christian, let your heart rejoice, for God made you "accepted in the Beloved"<sup>328</sup> So what do you have to fear? Let your face always wear a smile. Live near your Master. Live in the suburbs of that celestial city, New Jerusalem.<sup>329</sup> For soon, when your time has come, you'll rise up where your Lord sits, and reign at His right hand.<sup>330</sup>
